A Message from the Mayor

On behalf of the citizens of Vancouver and my colleagues on City Council, I want to welcome everyone attending “How to Love a Child,” the Janusz Korczak Lecture Series.

Youth are an integral aspect of any community, and I applaud everyone involved in the creation of this lecture series. The work of Dr. Janusz Korczak was integral in child advocacy and continues to be relevant for those working within the field. This series promises to bring dialog from multiple disciplines in order to provide a well-rounded approach to the topic at hand.

I hope everyone has an enjoyable and educational experience at the lecture series!

Yours truly,

Gregor Robertson
